

House Resolution No. 4311

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are deeply saddened by the news of the recent passing of H. Lyman Mooney, of Marshfield, Missouri; and

Whereas, born Oct. 28, 1909, in Rogersville, Missouri, to H. L. and Annie Mooney, H. Lyman Mooney graduated from Southwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1932, and did his graduate study at the University of Missouri; and

Whereas, H. Lyman Mooney married Ruby Edith Bailey on Christmas Day in 1932, and this union was blessed with a daughter, Carolyn Ann; and

Whereas, Ruby Mooney passed away in 1972, and in 1975, H. Lyman Mooney married Lucile Walker, who also precedes him in death; and

Whereas, throughout his life, H. Lyman Mooney had a great love for music and he was an accomplished vocalist, and he taught music for over forty years at various Missouri schools; and

Whereas, in addition to teaching, H. Lyman Mooney was involved in many other activities, including being a co-owner of a Marshfield Ford dealership in the 1930s and co-owner of a Marshfield hardware and gift shop in the 1960s, and he also owned and operated a farm near Marshfield from 1940 to 2008; and

Whereas, H. Lyman Mooney had been a member of the Marshfield Missouri United Methodist Church since 1933, and he directed the church choir for thirty-four years and taught Sunday school for forty-two years; and

Whereas, H. Lyman Mooney was active in the Lions Club, Methodist Men, and many other organizations, and he was delivering “Meals on Wheels” to “older citizens” at 90 years of age; and

Whereas, H. Lyman Mooney will be long and fondly remembered by his daughter, Carolyn Mooney Jaco, and her husband, Tom, of San Antonio, Texas; a sister, Jennie Vie Mooney Cheffey, and her husband, Rev. Charles Cheffey, of Sedalia, Missouri; a step-daughter-in-law, Anna Walker Hurley; as well as three grandchildren and two step-granddaughters; six great-grandchildren and a step-great-grandson; and countless other relatives and friends:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our most sincere condolences to the family of H. Lyman Mooney on this sad occasion; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Carolyn Mooney Jaco in honor of her father, H. Lyman Mooney.
